

TERRY ELMAN, M.A.
Education Coordinator
COUNCIL ON COMPULSIVE GAMBLING
OF NEW JERSEY, INC.

Terry Elman is presently the Education Coordinator of The Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey, Inc. From April 2007 through March 2008, Terry was Acting Executive Director. Terry Elman is known nationally as a trainer in the compulsive gambling field. He has over 30 years experience as a licensed high school guidance counselor and more than 10 years in the compulsive gambling field.

He has appeared in high school and college classrooms nationally and internationally as well as senior citizen W.I.S.E. projects and training centers and statewide, national and international conferences. He has developed lesson plans and curriculum on compulsive gambling, which are being implemented in many New Jersey schools. He is a member of the Association of Professionals Treating Problem Gamblers (APTPG) and teaches seminars on compulsive gambling at Rutgers New Jersey State University and Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Terry is married and has three daughters and six (6) grandchildren.